July and August Gallery Shows

Beach Path

In July the Olive M. Craig Gallery at the Alberta House brings you the whimsy of Stefanie Moran's paintings. We also have a Retrospective of Pat Norton's beautiful watercolor paintings in familiar locations. She passed away 20 years ago in 2001, yet her paintings remain familiar to us. Pat Norton's work is presented alongside another well loved local artist, Helga Flower, who has been painting her entire life. Through her many styles and expressions of her inner life, with her advice to all painters to "Paint from your heart." It is from the heart that we present these three exciting artists with their different styles. You can be sure to find something that will speak to your heart as well.

Helga Flower-All Dressed Up

As July ends, we have August to look forward to seeing the work of two talented artists. JudithAnn Colein is a gifted artist, working in many different mediums. she served as Gallery Director from 2013-2015.
